Newsletter

6th February 2017

I enjoyed accompanying children in Class One to the Chill Factor<sup>e</sup> last week, and they all had an amazing day. Children in Class Two also enjoyed time out to visit the theatre, and there are visits planned for Class Three and Class Four in the next few weeks. It is good to see how the children learn from experiences outside the classroom, and they are certainly offered a wide variety of experiences.

Unfortunately, Mrs Marsh is still absent, due to illness. Lessons are being covered by Mrs Tench, Mrs Smith and myself, to ensure that the children in Class Three are not disadvantaged during this time. We wish her a speedy recovery. Meanwhile, it has been good to see the first children gaining their Times Tables Awards. Well done to them!
