

Year Six : Term 1: Week 1

- Prefixes and suffixes – ‘bi’ means ‘two’; ‘aqua’ means ‘water’; ‘super’ means ‘greater’; ‘port’ means ‘carry’; ‘tele’ means ‘far’.

binoculars bicycle bilingual	aquarium aquatic aquanaut	supernatural superstition supervise	import export transport	telephone television telescope
Challenge:	biennial aquamarine superfluous portfolio telecommunication

Year Six : Term 1: Week 2

- Prefixes and suffixes – ‘trans’ means ‘across’; ‘auto’ means ‘self’; ‘phobia’ means ‘fear’; ‘ology’ means ‘study’; ‘pre’ means ‘before’.

transplant transfer transformation	automatic automatically autograph	hydrophobia biology geology	archaeology zoology theology	precede precaution predict
Challenge:	transatlantic autobiography arachnophobia palaeontology prejudice

Year Six : Term 1: Week 3

- Prefixes and suffixes – ‘tri’ means ‘three’; ‘oct’ means ‘eight’; ‘uni’ means ‘one’; ‘scribe’ means ‘write’; ‘micro’ means ‘small’.

triangle triangular octagon	octagonal unicycle unique	uniform unify unity	universe universal prescribe	describe microbe microscope
Challenge:	inscription prescription description microscopic microbiology

Year Six : Term 1: Week 4

- Prefixes and suffixes – ‘pre’ means ‘before’; ‘sub’ means ‘under’; ‘photo’ means ‘light’.

previous prevent prehistoric	prepare preparation predict	prefer preferred predator	submarine subway submerge	photograph photographer photography
Challenge:	precipitation precedent subterranean submission photosynthesis

Year Six : Term 1: Week 5

- Prefixes and suffixes – ‘cred’ means belief; ‘ex’ means ‘out’.

credible incredible credit	exit excited excitement	exceptional except exceptionally	examine examination execute	exercise expanse expansion
Challenge:	incredulous excavation exhibition expedition extinction

Year Six: Term 1: Week 6

- Connectives – words (or phrases) that can be used to link one sentence with another

Since while however	because although meanwhile	therefore furthermore besides	moreover whatever whoever	whenever until nevertheless
Challenge: (not connectives)	parallel isosceles perpendicular vertical horizontal

Year Six : Term 1: Week 7

- Unstressed vowels e.g handubag

definite vegetable separate	separation similar benefit	medicine geography geographical	description cupboard history	lettuce journal skeleton
Challenge:	jewellery environment government miniature parliament			